The Venues

- Eternity

Bali's largest purpose-built wedding space, Eternity overlooks Mulia Lake and lush tropical gardens, crowned by a statement crystal chandelier in the shape of an infinity symbol — a visual ode to everlasting love. Designed to host ceremonies across all faiths and cultures, it is a serene, luminous space that honours every story.

- Harmony

Positioned along the coastline with uninterrupted views of the Indian Ocean, Harmony is a quiet, intimate venue ideal for smaller ceremonies and blessings — where sea breeze and natural light evoke a sense of gentle grace.

- Mulia Glass House

A contemporary, all-glass pavilion surrounded by greenery, The Mulia Glass House blends climate-controlled comfort with botanical beauty. Its adjacent garden space makes it ideal for alfresco afternoon cocktails, elegant receptions, or pre-dinner gatherings by the sea.

- Unity Garden

A signature beachfront venue, Unity Garden offers an open-air setting with the sacred Geger Temple as a dramatic cultural backdrop. Sunset ceremonies here are framed by the sound of the ocean, golden skies, and Balinese spiritual ambience.

- Eden Garden

Nestled within lush tropical landscaping, Eden Garden is perfect for twilight blessings, vow renewals, or relaxed outdoor receptions — a verdant haven where nature and celebration coexist in harmony.

- Grand Ballroom & Function Suites

Mulia Bali features not one, but two grand ballrooms, complemented by a collection of smaller function rooms. Ideal for elegant, multi-day wedding programmes, the spaces accommodate every tradition — from sangjit and tea ceremonies to formal banquets — with seamless flow and exquisite style.
